Describing Places

• Chikhaldara •

Chikhaldara was discovered by Captain Robinson of the Hyderabad Regiment in 1823. The Englishmen found it particularly attractive because the lush green hue of the place reminded them of England.

When the leaves fall in September / October, they were reminded of autumn in England. There was even a proposal to make it the seat of the Government of India.

British Commander selected land of Chikhaldara named Mr. Sheikh Metab who was landlord of Chikhaldara.

The sole hill resort in the Vidarbha region, it is situated at an altitude of 1118 meters and has the added dimension of being of only coffee. Chikhaldara has an annual rainfall

154 cm. Temperatures vary from 39°C in summer to 5°C in winter. The best months to visit are from October to June.

Chikhaldara is a hill station and a municipal council in Amravati district in the Indian state of Maharashtra.
